

Lancer Low-Down

September 8, 2019

Hello, as we all try to adjust to getting back in to routine, it is just then that life throws us curves. Unfortunately, it is at this time with a heavy heart that I must inform all of you that Ms. Giammarinaro, our First Grade teacher will be leaving us. I feel that we were lucky to have had her and her many talents for the time that we did. She was blessed with an opportunity that she can't pass up. If you should see her please wish her well on her future endeavors.

Reminder that tomorrow night is our HSA Welcome back dinner and open house. Please signup at the signup genius link below for our Back To School Night dinner/backpack blessing/meet the teacher night.
