

Lancer Low-Down

October 14, 2020

- All items that your child brings in for lunch entertainment please use a “brown paper bag” as a point of reference for whether it is acceptable in size. Also, please nothing that makes noise, could be considered violent or harmful. Some things that would be great are books or paper and drawing tools.
- Uniform orders will be paused, as the vendor gets the website up and running. Once it is complete you will be able to order at your leisure. As soon as this becomes an available option I will let you know.
